ALESSANDRO & CHANTAL PARRILLO

among the Konyagi of West Africa

After eight weeks of travels, in six different locations, we were very happy to finally be settled in our own apartment in Canada. During those travels, we had a great conference in Senegal with fellow missionaries and had a great visit with Alessandro's family in Italy.

We've already been back in Canada for almost a month. Our apartment in Ottawa is furnished, a vehicle was lent to us and the kids have bikes and toys. So, we're well settled and very thankful!

Pray for our adjustments and for our travels to visit churches to share with them what God is doing among the Konyagi. The next five months will be very busy with church visits, medical appointments, school for Samuel, preparations to return to Guinea, reviewing the Konyagi language recordings and tons of paperwork!

We've included the schedule for our presentations (please do not post this online). If one of these is in your area and you're able to come, it would be wonderful to see you. If you require more information, let us know.

Please continue to pray for the Konyagi and that God will be preparing their hearts to receive His Truth. Thank you for your partnership! We hope that we will get to see you in the coming months!
