Rachevsky's in Portugal

Thank you all who read our updates and continue to support us with your generous giving and faithful prayers. We are now in our last quarter of the school year at Greater Lisbon Christian Academy. By God's grace, we will finish this year strong.

I've spent this year trying to teach students Geometry, Science, and a bit about computers and coding, but I hope they are picking up on more than just the academics. I hope they are seeing someone relying on God's grace to get them through. I hope they see love and respect, grace and truth, confidentiality and openness, kindness and compassion but firmness in conviction. I hope they see some hint or reflection of Jesus. I hope they are drawn to Him as He works in me.

As I'm sure many of you are in the same boat, I've been trying to find that balance of work, family, exercise, and rest, while doing it all in the grace of God's given strength. I'm so thankful that my identity and self-worth are found in who I am in Christ, not in the number of likes on social media, or praises from friends, family, colleagues, or students. I'm glad I am His, and He is mine. I'm glad to be a child of God as He has adopted me into His family out of His love. I find strength that it's His armour I put on: His salvation, His righteousness, His truth, His gospel, faith in Him and His Word, and His Spirit in me who does battle with the flesh, the world, and the devil (Eph. 6:10-18). It really is nothing of myself, but wholly Himself.

How can you pray for us or the ministry here in Portugal?

- We are currently in Spiritual Emphasis week, where in times past we've seen kids come to a saving faith in Jesus. Please pray for the souls of our students from April 29-May 3rd.
- Pray for us as parents as we are in the throws of "terrible two's" with one child, preteen with the oldest, and a middle child caught in between.
- Pray that we finish this year well and learn from our successes and failures.
- Pray that we use our Spiritual gifts in a manner that helps God's kingdom grow, spreading the Word of God, Love of God, and Power of God throughout our circles.
